

Rainy River District School Board Reports On Class Size

(March 2, 2004) – The Rainy River District School Board average class sizes for primary and elementary students are smaller than the maximum numbers set by the Ministry according to the Board’s October 2003 report. The legislation has an average class size limit of 24 in the primary (JK to Grade 3) division and 24.5 for JK to Grade 8. The Rainy River District School Board average primary class size is 19.13 and the average elementary class size is 22.21.

Class size is important to teachers and parents alike. The Rainy River District School Board continues to focus on achievement for all students with average class size below Ministry maximums.
