Confederation College in collaboration with the RRDSB and the Ontario Youth Apprenticeship Program (OYAP) are offering a variety of fun and interactive youth camps including Carpentry, Quilt Your Heart Out, Trick your Ride, Make & Bake, Cooking Camp, and Trades Camp Level 2. The Camp Assistant will support these camps by:

- Assisting instructors in delivering a series of trades-based summer camps geared towards youth ages 11 – 14.
- Classroom supports include: assisting students, preparation and distributions of materials, monitoring classroom activity, reporting potential issues to the instructor.
- Assisting to create awareness of secondary and post-secondary pathways that can follow from the camp experience.

Qualifications:

- Must be currently enrolled as a full-time secondary school student and returning to school for 23/24. Priority given to applicants pursuing a trade.
- Excellent organizational and communication skills.
- Able to take directions from staff and instructors.
- Ability to demonstrate initiative and self-motivation.
- Experience in any of these skills in a classroom setting would be an asset: baking, carpentry, culinary, machining, sewing, welding.
- Demonstrates an understanding of and commitment to the key learning goals of the summer trades camps, particularly for underrepresented groups in the skilled trades.

Please apply in writing by completing the Board's Application Form. Applications must also include a cover letter, current resume and Reference Authorization Form by Tuesday, April 2, 2024, by 4:00pm.
