

Rainy River District School Board

Invites applications for the

PRINCIPAL/ VICE-PRINCIPAL POOL

The Rainy River District School Board invites Qualified Elementary and Secondary School Principals and Vice-Principals, and Teachers working towards these qualifications to apply for the Principal/Vice Principal Pool, which consists of a pool for the Atikokan area and a pool for the Mine Centre/West area.

Serving approximately 2,300 students in 12 schools, the Rainy River District School Board is a strong, progressive system that is seeking leaders with demonstrated school and District level leadership.

Placement of successful candidates to positions of school/system leadership will be based on:

- Organization need
- Diversity and equity initiatives
- Degree of leadership readiness
- Demonstrated successes in management
- Educational and professional accomplishments
- Performance, adaptability, values, experience, knowledge/competency
- Relocation willingness
- Interpersonal skills, business acumen and other professional attributes with emphasis on the competencies, both instructional and personal, identified in the Ontario Ministry of Education's Leadership Framework.

Please submit your application package by 12:00 pm on Wednesday, November 29, 2023
